

12/16/2012

Hunter

This is my very last payment to "you people". Last year when you called me on the day of my mother's death, I wish I would have told you to "kiss my ass" then, I was weak and let you get away with your condescending conversation. But not this year. On behalf of me and my family, I want you personally to know that you and all involved can kiss my Entire Ass.